This musical score segment contains measures 86 through 89. It features six staves: two treble clefs at the top, two bass clefs in the middle, and two piano staves at the bottom. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). Measure 86 shows a complex texture with chords and moving lines. Measure 87 continues with similar harmonic movement. Measure 88 features a prominent bass line with eighth notes and a treble line with chords. Measure 89 concludes the segment with sustained chords in the piano staves and a final melodic phrase in the treble.

106

Musical score for measures 106-109. The score is written for a large ensemble, including strings, woodwinds, brass, and percussion. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The time signature is 4/4. The music features complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and a variety of articulations such as staccato and accents. The percussion part includes a steady eighth-note pattern on a snare drum and a more complex pattern on a tom-tom.

110

Musical score for measures 110-113. The score continues the complex rhythmic and melodic themes established in the previous measures. The woodwind and brass sections have prominent parts with many slurs and ties. The percussion maintains its driving eighth-note pattern.

114

Musical score for measures 114-117. The music concludes with a final cadence. The woodwind and brass sections play sustained chords, while the strings and percussion provide a rhythmic foundation. The percussion part features a final flourish with a series of eighth notes.
